4. FREQUENCY OF MEETINGS

- (a) The Committee shall meet not less than four times a year at appropriate times in the reporting and audit cycle and at such other times as required. Decisions may be taken by the Committee without a meeting if all of the members of the Committee provide their approval in writing or electronically.
- (b) Outside of the formal meeting programme, the Committee Chairman, and to a lesser extent the other Committee members, will maintain a dialogue with key individuals involved in the Company's governance, including the Board Chairman, the CEO, the CFO, the external audit lead partner, and Head of Internal Audit.,

5. NOTICE OF MEETINGS

- (a) Meetings of the Committee shall be convened by the Secretary at the request of any of its members, or at the request of the CEO, or CFO, or at the request of external or internal auditors if they consider it necessary.
- (b) Unless otherwise agreed by the Committee, notice of each meeting confirming the venue, time and date, together with an agenda of items to be discussed, shall be forwarded to each member of the Committee, not less than two working days prior to the date of the meeting. Supporting papers shall be sent to members of the Committee, at the same time if practicable. Copies of the agendas, papers, and minutes may be circulated or made available to the other non-executive directors and to attendees as appropriate and as agreed.
- (c) Notices, agendas and supporting papers can be sent in electronic form where the recipient has agreed to receive documents in such a way.

6. MINUTES OF MEETINGS

- (a) The Secretary shall minute the proceedings and resolutions of all meetings of the Committee, including recording the names of those present and in attendance.
- (b) Draft minutes of Committee meetings shall be circulated promptly to all members of the Committee unless it would be inappropriate to do so in the opinion of the Committee Chairman.
- (c) Final signed copies of the minutes of the meetings of the Committee should be maintained for the Company's records.

7. SHAREHOLDER ENGAGEMENT

- (a) The Committee Chairman should attend the annual general meeting to respond to questions from shareholders. In addition, the Committee Chairman should engage with shareholders on significant matters related to the Committee's areas of responsibility.

8. DUTIES

(a) FINANCIAL REPORTING

- (i) The Committee shall monitor the integrity of the financial statements of the Company, including its annual and interim reports, preliminary results' announcements and any other formal statements relating to its financial performance, and review and report to the Board on significant financial reporting issues and judgements which those statements contain, having regard to matters communicated to it by the auditor. The Committee shall also review summary financial statements, significant financial returns to regulators and any financial information contained in certain other documents, such as announcements of a price sensitive nature.
- (ii) In particular, the Committee shall review and challenge where necessary, taking into account the views of the external auditor:
- the application of significant accounting policies used in the preparation of the financial statements, and any changes to them;
 - the methods used to account for significant or unusual transactions where different approaches are possible;
 - whether the Company has adopted appropriate accounting policies and made appropriate estimates and judgements;
 - the clarity and completeness of disclosure in the Company's financial reports and the context in which statements are made;
 - all material information presented with the financial statements, including the strategic report and the corporate governance statement (insofar as it relates to the Company's financial reporting arrangement, the internal and external audit, internal financial controls and risk management);
 - the assumptions or qualifications in support of the going concern statement (including any material uncertainties as to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern over a period of at least twelve months from the date of approval of the financial statements) and the longer term viability statement (including an assessment of the prospects of the Company looking forward over an appropriate and justified period)
 - where requested by the Board, the Committee will provide advice on how, taking into account the Company's position and principal risks, the prospects of the Company have been assessed, over what period and why the period is regarded as appropriate; and
 - any significant adjustments resulting from the audit.

- (iii) The Committee shall review any other statements requiring board approval which contain financial information first, where to carry out a review prior to board approval would be practicable and consistent with any prompt reporting requirements under any law or regulation including the Listing Rules, Prospectus Rules and Disclosure Guidance and Transparency Rules sourcebook.
- (iv) Where the Committee is not satisfied with any aspect of the proposed financial reporting by the Company, it shall report its views to the Board.
- (v) Monitor compliance with financial reporting standards, any recognised investment exchange and other financial and governance reporting requirements.

- (ix) consider whether an independent, third party review of internal audit effectiveness and processes should be conducted at least every five years. The Chairman of the Committee will oversee and approve the appointment of the external assessor..

(h) EXTERNAL AUDIT

The Committee shall:

- (i) ensure that the Company complies with the requirements of EU Regulation 537/2014 and Directive 2014/56/EU and the Statutory Auditors and Third Country Auditors Regulations 2016 in respect of audit firm tendering and rotation. The Committee shall ensure that at least once every ten years the audit services contract is put out to competitive tender, with a change of firm at least every twenty years, to comply with the regulatory requirements and to enable the Committee to compare the quality and effectiveness of the services provided by the statutory auditor with those of other audit firms;
- (ii) conduct the tender process for the appointment of the external auditor, ensuring that:
 - (A) it complies with all applicable regulatory and legal requirements (including the UK implementation of Article 16 of the EU Regulation 537/2014) and as such includes a first and second choice recommendation in the report on the tender process to the Board;
 - (B) all tendering firms have such access as is necessary to information and individuals during the tendering process;
- (iii) consider and make recommendations to the Board, to be put to shareholders for approval at the annual general meeting, in relation to the appointment, re-appointment and removal of the Company's external auditor and to approve the remuneration and terms of engagement of the external auditor;
- (iv) if an external auditor resigns, the Committee shall investigate the issues leading to this and decide whether any action is required;
- (v) oversee the relationship with the external auditor including (but not limited to):
 - negotiating and agreeing for and on behalf of the Board the external auditor's remuneration, whether fees for audit or non-audit services, and ensuring that the level of fees is appropriate to enable a high quality audit to be conducted so that the external auditor's independence and objectivity are safeguarded, noting that such fees for non-audit services will be subject to a cap of 70% of the annual audit fees in the last three consecutive financial years;
 - negotiating and agreeing for and on behalf of the Board the external auditor's terms of engagement, including any engagement letter issued at the start of each audit and the scope of the audit;
 - monitoring, and assessing at least annually, the external auditor's independence and objectivity taking into account relevant UK and Georgian law, regulation, the FRC Ethical and Auditing Standards and other professional requirements and the Group's relationship with the auditor as a whole, including any threats to the auditor's independence and the safeguards applied to mitigate those threats, including the provision of any non-audit services;
 - satisfying itself that there are no relationships between the auditor and the Company (other than in the ordinary course of business) that could adversely affect the external auditor's independence or objectivity;

- agreeing on behalf of the Board a policy on the employment of former employees of the Company's auditor, and monitoring the implementation of this policy;
 - monitoring the auditor's processes for maintaining independence, its compliance with relevant UK and Georgian law, regulation, other ethical and professional requirements and the Financial Reporting Council (FRC) Ethical and Auditing Standards, including the guidance on the rotation of audit partner and staff;
 - monitoring the level of fees paid by the Company to the external auditor compared to the overall fee income of the firm, office and partner and assess these in the context of relevant legal, professional and regulatory requirements;
 - assessing annually the qualifications, expertise and resources and independence of the external auditor and the effectiveness of the external audit process, taking into consideration relevant UK and Georgian professional and regulatory requirements and a report from the external auditor on their own internal quality procedures and reviewing any reviews of the auditor published by the FRC's Audit Quality Review;
 - seek to ensure co-ordination of the external audit with the activities of the internal audit function; and
 - evaluate the risks to the quality and effectiveness of the financial reporting process in the light of the external auditor's communications with the Committee;
- (vi) develop, and implement, and report to the Board any action or improvement required in relation to, the Company's formal policy on the provision of non-audit services by the auditor, including approval of non-audit services by the Committee and specifying the types of non-audit service to be pre-approved, and assessment of whether non-audit services have a direct or material effect on the audited financial statements. The policy should include consideration of the following matters:
- (A) threats to the independence and objectivity of the external auditor and any safeguards in place;
 - (B) the nature of the non-audit services and fees for such services relative to the audit fee; and
 - (C) whether the external audit firm is the most suitable supplier of the non-audit service.
- (vii) meet regularly with the external auditor, including once at the planning stage before the audit and once after the audit at the reporting stage. The Committee shall meet the external auditor at least once a year, without management present, to discuss the auditor's remit and any issues arising from the audit;
- (viii) review and approve the annual audit plan, ensuring it is consistent with the scope of the audit engagement, having regard to the seniority, expertise and experience of the audit team;

- (ix) review the findings of the audit with the external auditor. This shall include, but not be limited to, the following:
 - a discussion of any major issues which arose during the audit;
 - the auditor's explanation of how the risks to audit quality were addressed;
 - any accounting and audit judgements;
 - the auditor's view of their interactions with senior management;
 - levels of errors identified during the audit;
 - the effectiveness of the audit; and
 - views on the general control environment.
- (x) review any representation letter(s) requested by the external auditor before they are signed by management;
- (xi) review the management letter and management's response to the auditor's findings and recommendations; and
- (xii) review the effectiveness of the audit process, including an assessment of the quality of the audit, the handling of key judgements by the auditor, and the auditor's response to questions from the Committee.

(i) CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

The Committee shall:

- (i) in respect of each director, review any interests the director may have which conflict or may conflict with the interests of the Company;
- (ii) make recommendations to the Board as to whether any such conflict should be authorised and, if so, as to the terms and conditions on which any such authorisation should be given by the Board; and
- (iii) review on a bi-annual basis any authorisation given by the Board in order to determine whether the authorisation given should stand on the terms and conditions on which it has been given or whether additional terms and conditions should be imposed or whether the authorisation should be revoked (subject to giving the relevant director notice of the proposed revocation).
- (j) The responsibilities set out in this section 8 shall, where applicable, extend to any other major subsidiary undertaking, as determined by the Board of the Company.
- (k) The Committee shall make available its terms of reference explaining clearly its role and the authority delegated to it by the Board.
