

Georgia Capital is looking for a Financial Analyst

About Georgia Capital: We are a London Stock Exchange listed (LSE: CGEO LN), the largest Georgia-based investment group with a portfolio of GEL 5.1 billion. For more details, please visit our website: <https://georgiacapital.ge/>

Job description

Financial Analyst will report to the Head of accounting, reporting and FP&A and have inter alia the following responsibilities:

Main responsibilities

- Prepare daily, weekly, monthly, quarterly financial reports
- Prepare quarterly and annual reporting packages
- Prepare half year and annual IFRS financial statements and Saras reporting
- Perform a comprehensive analysis, including the business financial and operational metrics
- Prepare Budgets and financial & liquidity models of the company
- Perform extensive budget to actual variance analysis
- Prepare account reconciliations
- Comply with financial policies and regulations
- Communication with auditors of the company
- Collaborating with interlinked departments such as IR, technical accounting and valuation department, and CFO;

Skills and experiences

- Strong experience in accounting and financial reporting principles and practices
- Solid background and experience in finance
- Good knowledge of IFRS standards
- An undergraduate or master's degree in finance or business;
- Excellent organizing abilities and great attention to details
- Good knowledge of MS excel, word, outlook, PowerPoint
- Fluent knowledge of English language
- Be detail-oriented and have problem-solving and analytical skills;
- The candidate must be highly motivated, a team player and also able to work independently;

How to apply:

In order to apply, please fill out the application form at:

<https://georgia-capital.hirehive.com/financial-analyst-tbilisi-kQhvyC>

Deadline to apply: Friday, 20 March 2026

Our Contact: Phone: 032 2 000 000; Email: careers@gcap.ge