

Georgia Capital is looking for IFRS Accounting and Valuation Officer

About Georgia Capital: We are a London Stock Exchange listed (LSE: CGEO LN), the largest Georgia-based investment group with a portfolio of GEL 5.1 billion. For more details, please visit our website: <https://georgiacapital.ge/>

The IFRS technical accounting unit, part of the Finance department, is responsible for monitoring the Group's compliance with relevant IFRSs. The unit is involved in the development process of the Group's accounting policies by leading new accounting standards implementation projects, monitoring new IFRS developments, preparing an impact assessment on reporting, systems and processes across the Group. Technical accounting unit delivers trainings on new IFRSs, general guidance memos on application of IFRS and memoranda on complex, one-off transactions and also prepares quarterly reports to the Audit and Valuation Committee. The unit is involved in the communication process of the Group with external auditors. The unit is actively engaged in fair valuation of Georgia Capital's portfolio companies.

Technical accounting and valuation officer will report to the Head of Valuations and IFRS accounting and, have inter alia the following responsibilities:

- Analysis of accounting treatment of complex, one-off transactions and preparation of technical accounting memoranda
- Monitoring and ensuring compliance with IFRS standards across the Group
- Communication with external auditors
- Providing accounting advice/guidance
- Preparation of accounting policies
- Preparing and conducting presentations/trainings on new IFRS, complex accounting matters
- Impact assessment and implementation of new accounting standards / changes in accounting policies
- Analyzing market data and trends to support accurate valuation inputs
- Preparation of financial models
- Preparation and review of valuation reports

Required qualifications:

- Finance background. An undergraduate or master's degree in finance, business or economics
- At least 3 years of working experience in technical accounting, financial reporting or external audit
- Deep knowledge of IFRS standards
- ACCA student (at least F7, F8 and F9) or ACCA member or equivalent qualification
- Fluency in written and spoken English, and Georgian
- Financial modelling skills
- Excellent knowledge of MS Excel
- Excellent written communication skills to prepare memorandums and presentations
- Strong attention to details and position of problem-solving skills coupled with analytical skills
- The candidate must be proactive, highly motivated, and committed to continuous professional growth, with the ability to work effectively both as a team player and independently

How to apply:

In order to apply, please fill out the application form at:

<https://georgia-capital.hirehive.com/ifrs-accounting-and-valuation-officer-tbilisi-9trcqB>

Deadline to apply: Friday, 20 March 2026

Our Contact: Phone: 032 2 000 000; Email: careers@gcap.ge